

CONTACT INFORMATION
Lucasville Prison Uprising – April 11-21, 1993
25th Anniversary, 2018

Lawyers

Niki Z. Schwartz was called upon to negotiate an end to the uprising in April 1993 and he can explain the significance of the 21-point agreement: nzs@bgthumb.com

Richard Kerger is familiar with all stages of the litigation against Siddique Abdullah Hasan (f/k/a Carlos Sanders), rkerger@kergerlaw.com

Charles Boss initially represented Siddique Abdullah Hasan, cboss@bossvitou.com

Staughton and Alice Lynd have researched all of the capital cases and some of the other cases related to the Lucasville uprising, salynd@aol.com

Former Lucasville prisoners, no longer in prison

Mosi O. Paki, f/k/a Alvin Jones, was accused of rocking on the neck of Officer Vallandingham during the uprising, was found guilty by a rules infraction board but was not indicted, and is no longer in prison: mosipaki48@yahoo.com

Kunta Kenyatta was at Lucasville but not in L-Block during the uprising:
kuntakenyatta@sbcglobal.net

Ishaq Alkhair also was at Lucasville but not in L-Block during the uprising:
ialkhair@gmail.com

Former Lucasville prisoners in general population prisons

(See below, Requests for Media Interviews)

George Skatzes, #173-501, Chillicothe Correctional Institution, P. O. Box 5500, Chillicothe, OH 45601. Skatzes was a negotiator for the prisoners. He is now on death row.

Gregory Curry, #213-159, Ohio State Penitentiary, 878 Coitsville-Hubbard Road, Youngstown, OH 44505. Curry was convicted for his participation in the “death squad” on the first day of the uprising.

Leroy Elmore, #191-839, Richland Correctional Institution, P. O. Box 8107, Mansfield, OH 44905. Elmore was one of three Muslims who attempted to negotiate with the warden on the eve of the rebellion.

Roy Slider, #157-322, Toledo Correctional Institution, P. O. Box 80033, Toledo, OH 43608. Slider was in segregation at Lucasville before, during, and after the rebellion and again in recent years.

Former Lucasville prisoners now in extended restrictive housing

These men are alleged leaders of the rebellion. They are sentenced to death. They have been held at the highest security level in the Ohio State Penitentiary since it opened in 1998. The address is: 878 Coitsville-Hubbard Road, Youngstown, OH 44505

They are not permitted face-to-face media interviews. To speak with one of them by phone, he must put the name and number on his phone list, and he must initiate the call.

Siddique Abdullah Hasan, f/k/a Carlos Sanders, #R130-559

Keith LaMar, #317-117

Jason Robb, #308-919

Video

For a documentary film by Derrick Jones, see, The Shadow of Lucasville, a d jones film, at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YqVslMz1UaA> or <https://www.facebook.com/TheShadowOfLucasvilleMovie/>

Requests for Media Interviews

To request a media interview, contact:

Jo Ellen Smith, Communications Chief
Office of Communications
Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction
770 West Broad Street
Columbus, OH 43222
614.752.1150
JoEllen.Smith@odrc.state.oh.us

The request must be submitted on official letterhead of the media outlet.

Media representatives and journalists who are on an inmate's personal visitation list shall be denied media interviews with that offender.

To interview a prisoner who is not sentenced to death, see ODRC Policy 01-COM-09, Media Policy, effective July 13, 2017, page 5, http://www.drc.ohio.gov/Portals/0/Policies/DRC%20Policies/01-COM-09%20\(July%202017\).pdf?ver=2017-07-13-083736-217.pdf?ver=2017-07-13-083736-217)

To interview a death row inmate who is in general population (not in restrictive housing) see ODRC Policy 01-COM-13 – Death Row and Executions, effective July 13, 2017, page 4, http://www.drc.ohio.gov/Portals/0/Policies/DRC%20Policies/01-COM-13%20\(July%202017\).pdf?ver=2017-07-13-083735-967.pdf?ver=2017-07-13-083735-967)